Introduction

For many years, the Grant Trumpeter has presented an annual review of finished products. The huge amount of time plus the hard work put into each and every project is never shown. Just as a musician practices for hours for a single performance at a contest or concert or as an athlete trains for weeks to play for a few minutes or to sprint for a few seconds, students read what seems like volumes of books and notes for a forty minute test. Even the teacher who gives the test spends years of time going to school preparing lectures and evaluating projects in order to succeed with his present occupation.

This year, the staff decided on a "Behind the Scenes" theme to show more than simply the finished results. Two pages after each main section of the book were specially reserved for "Behind the Scene" purpose.

Along with each "Behind the Scene" section, the staff has added a few new sections. They are occupied by mini-courses, girls sports, and individual student projects prepared in English, Art, Home Economics, Photography, Woods, and Metals.

Thus, the new additions, we hope the student body appreciates the time and effort put into the 1973-1974 TRUMPETER.

Acknowledgements

The yearbook staff has been assisted during the year by many people. We wish to express special thanks to those who have helped with the senior-faculty basketball game, the custodians for their cooperation in setting up for hot dog sales, the secretaries for supplying necessary materials and information and those who purchased sponsorships helping ease the financial burden. Root Studio deserves special recognition for their fast efficient service throughout the year. And a most sincere thank you is extended to teachers who have cooperated by proofing copy and honoring late and release passes. These people have helped in their way to produce this book. Thank you.

Dedication

This year the Trumpeter Staff dedicates the 1974 yearbook to a person with 25 years of service and dedication to Grant Community High School. She taught Science, Problems in Democracy, and Girls P.E. when first coming to Grant. In 1957, she became the Dean of Girls and Director of Guidance. Then, in 1972, she became Grant's first full-time Director of Guidance.

Among her many accomplishments were the initiation of the Guidance News Letter, the origination of the follow-up study of graduates, the starting of Career Night, and the scheduling of students for Grant's first mini-course program.

It is with great pleasure that we dedicate this yearbook to a very deserving person,

ACTIVITIES

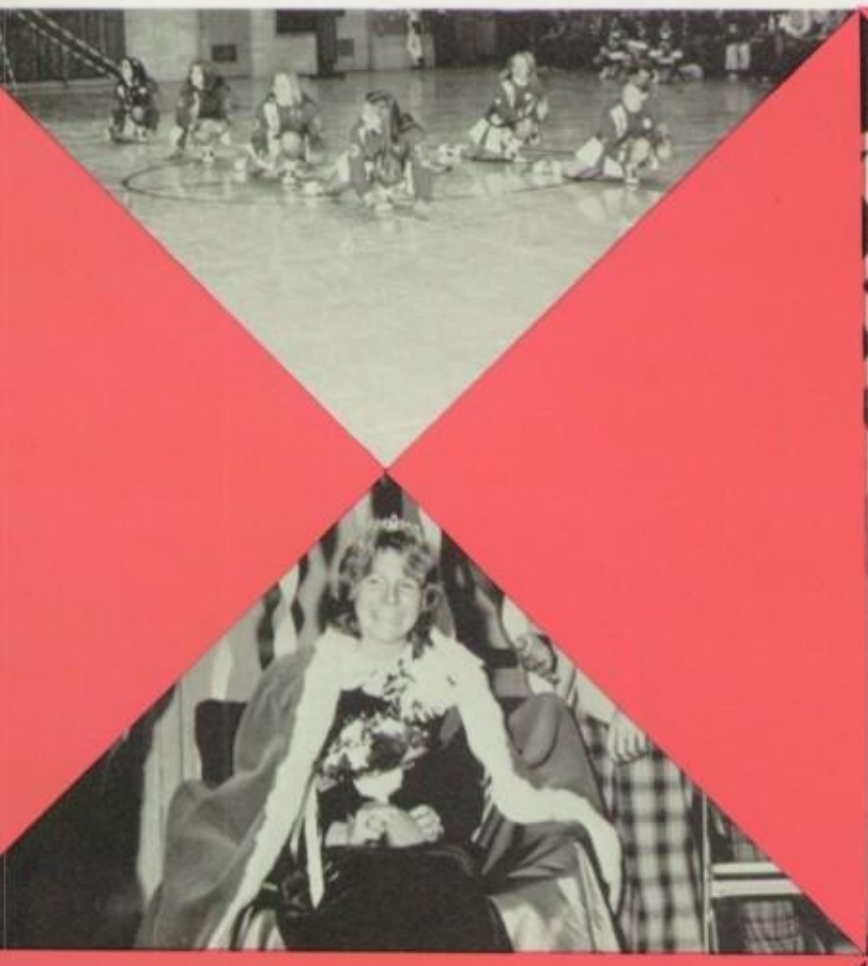
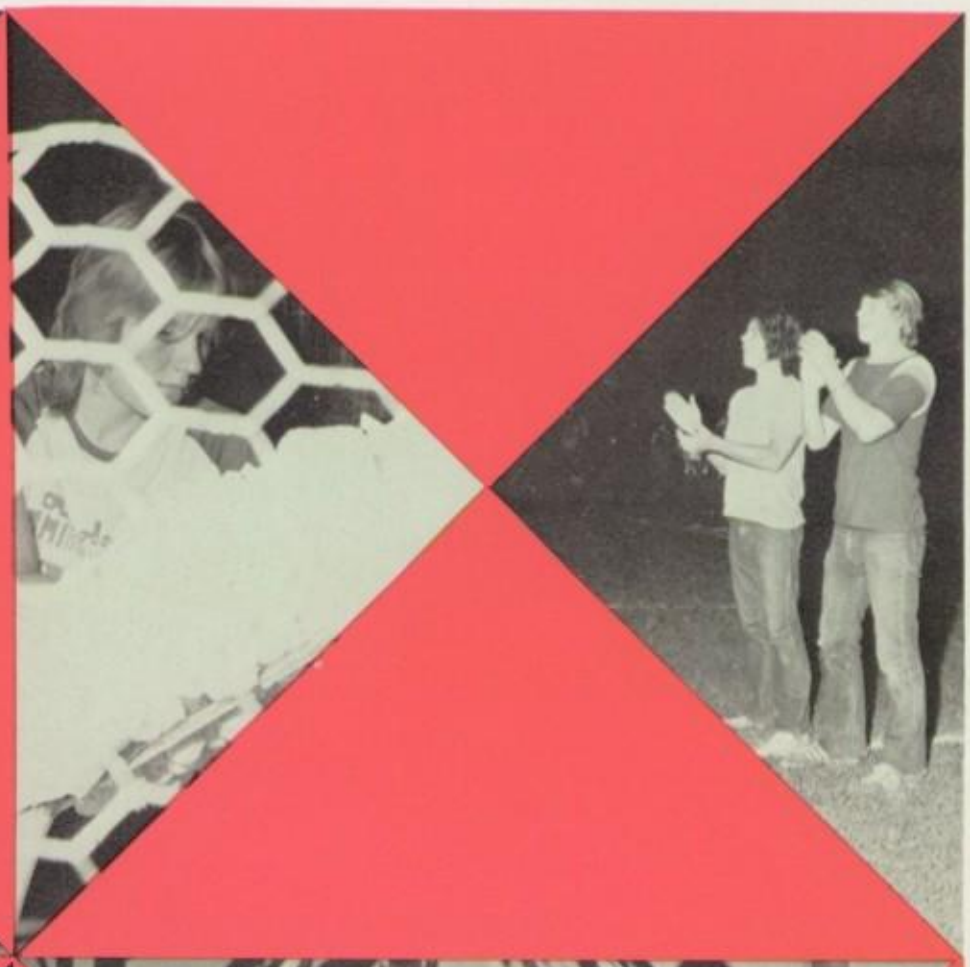
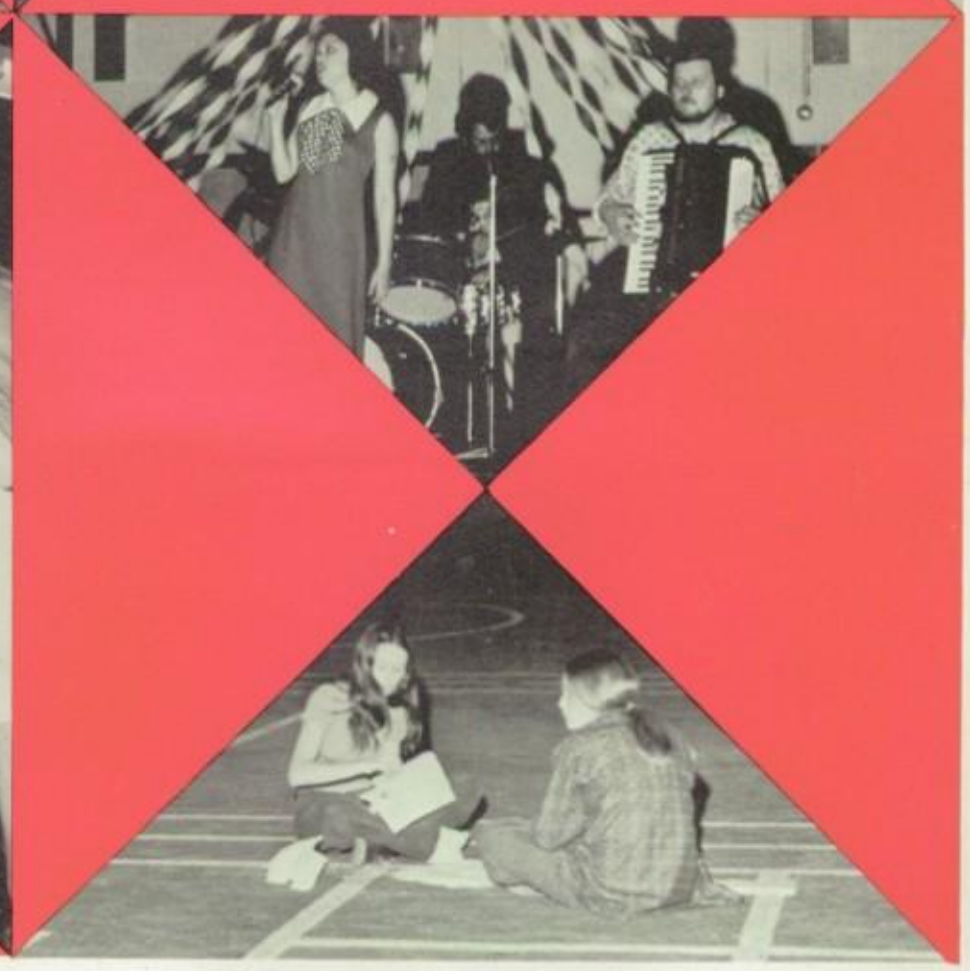
1973







Homecoming 1973 occurred during October 9-13 1973, with many old traditions wound around the new theme, "Historical Happenings." Leading to Friday's pep assembly, the G.C.H.S. Cheerleaders staged "Spirit Week" consisting of hat day, class color day, old-fashioned day, and red-hot spirit day. Seniors were excused from classes on Friday. Some girls painted windows in the plaza and downtown while others were busy with field decorations. Senior boys worked all day collecting wood for the bonfire.

Jeanette Engeln was crowned Homecoming Queen by Student Council President Glen Carlson at the pep assembly. Queen Jeanette was attended by Seniors Deborah Doherty, Jennifer Grenell, and Linda Hannan, Sophomore Ann Biere, and Freshman Ronda Blair.

This year it was the Senior girls who came out on top in the annual Junior-Senior mock football game. Closely following this exhibition was the bonfire held on the school grounds east of the building. Immediately after the blaze the bonfire dance took place in the school auditorium.

Saturday dawned clear and crisp for the annual parade through town. All the classes participated with floats, the freshmen taking first place, the seniors second and the sophomores third. The ideas of victory put forth by the floats did not materialize later in the evening. Both the sophomore and varsity football squads were defeated by Cary Grove in disappointing decisions. The festivities ended with "The Spooner Band" providing music for the traditional semi-formal dance in the gym leaving Homecoming 1973 only a memory.

The Grant "G" Club is an athletic organization for the promotion of athletics at Grant High School. Any person who has received a major award is eligible to be a member of this organization. A "G" Club member may be recognized by the bright red jackets which he was issued for work done in the club. The members sell popcorn, candy, and pop to purchase athletic equipment which cannot always be purchased by the school. So far the club has purchased a weight training machine, video-tape machine, curve ball pitching machine and many smaller items. This year there are over 25 active members. Leading this group were Joe Kukla, President; Greg Hopkins, Vice-President; Mark Chaberski, Secretary-Treasurer; Ed Taveirne, Sergeant at Arms.

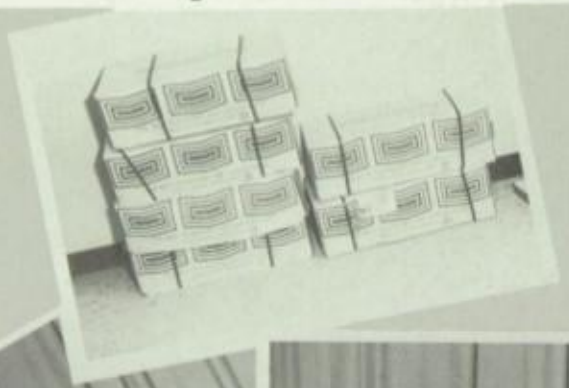
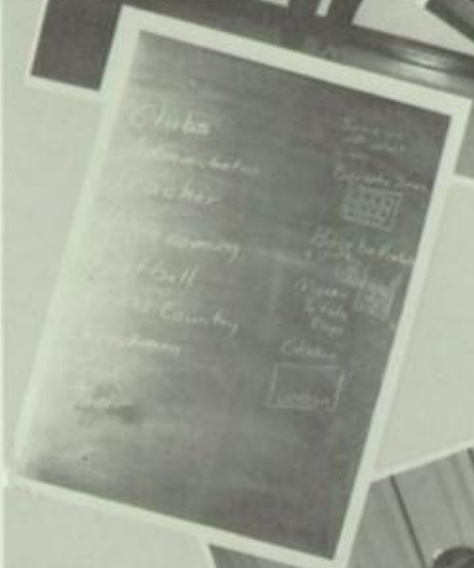
The Trumpeter Staff





ere's a special variety of students at Grant. They go about their routine school day periodically disappearing into a room by the English office.

There, amid an organized chaotic mess of rough draft sheets, quad packs, rulers, pens and piles of pictures, they design this book. They are very real people with minds that have their own ideas and emotions, brains that become tired of working proportions, and bodies that want to go home at the end of the school day. These same people sponsor basketball games, sell hot dogs and collect sponsorships to help pay for well over a third of the yearbook's cost. A few will be seen with cameras. Some swallowed self pride or shed tears when after working on a design for hours they heard, "That's good, but it will be better if . . ."

These people have names . . . some have contributed more time than others . . . each person has performed in their own unique way and will be remembered most for certain tasks and sections.

Trish Sutton with senior section and mini courses. Roy Bolin and Sue Sutton with cameras. Yvonne Pawela with Wrestling, Track, opening and closing. Julie Salava - the Music section, Homecoming and quad packs of the Graduation before it occurred. The new student projects section, basketball and baseball with their completely new format - demonstrate the talent of Cathy Ring.

Rookie Cindy Mulligan, recipient of the yearbook award, did a fantastic amount of work on Prom, Headlines, Clubs, Yearbook and Selling Sponsorships.

The Yearbook didn't have an editor by title this year - just a person who accepted the responsibility that goes with the position and with Cindy sold over half the sponsorships and then designed numbered sections and special pages. Nancy Needham deserves credit too few will ever know about.

This has been my staff. I love them. I truly appreciate what they have done for the students, school and me. I sincerely hope you too will appreciate their effort to present the 1973-1974 school year in Yearbook format.

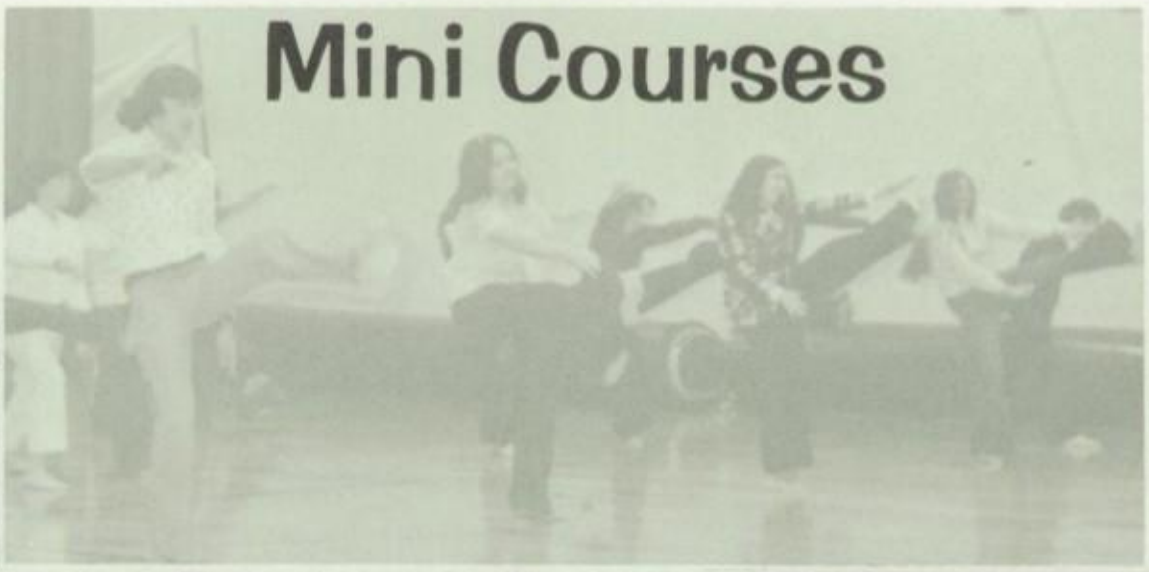
The Streak Party, headed by James Whipper, had an enormous landslide when every single member of the party succeeded to their desired office.

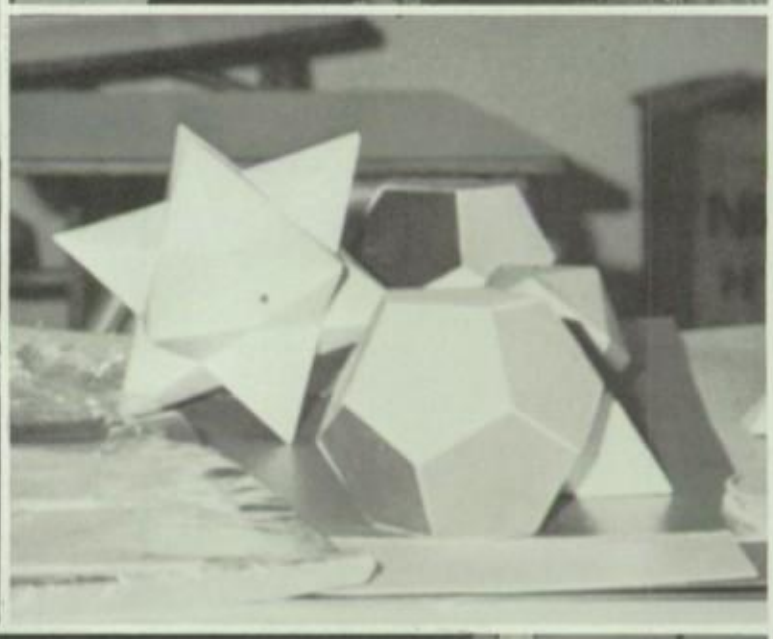
Like previous years, the group had a day of fun and a day of learning experience.

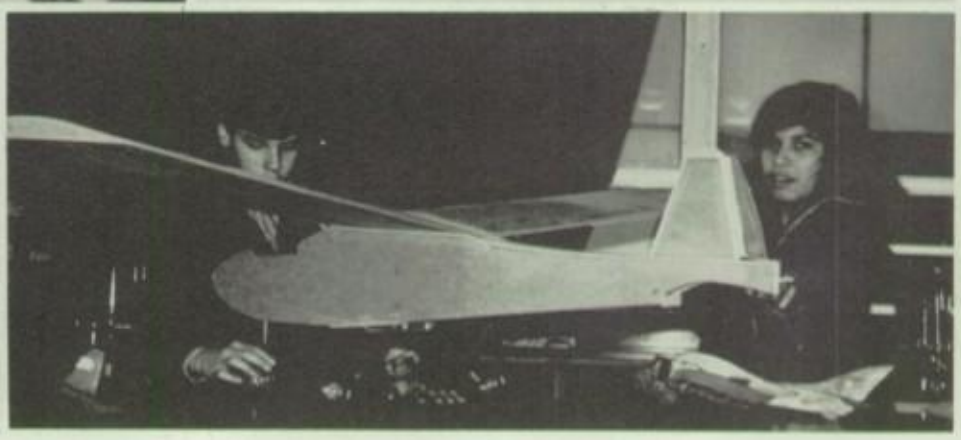
This year three trials were held. Mayor Joseph Armondo was taken into custody for having a red light on a privately owned vehicle. (He was not mayor that day and thus could not have a light on his car). Mr. K. K. Hamsher had been arrested for constructing a fence without a permit. Mr. L. Niwa had been taken prisoner for not having a village sticker on his privately owned vehicle.

Student Government Day was like previous years and years to come, a complete success.

Mini Courses







1973-1974
Mini Courses

Grant High instituted its first Mini Course Program during January 21-23, 1974. Students made choices from among fifty-two different courses, each course lasting about one and one half hours per day during the three day period.

Prior to the actual course dates, students chose five courses, placed them in order of preference on a course election form, and indicated whether they wanted two, three, or four courses.

In the individual classes there were no grades, no tests, and no academic risks. Besides giving each student some basic knowledge of each subject chosen, the Mini Course Program also gave some time for second semester schedule changes and program adjustments.

Mini Courses would not have been possible without the tremendous amount of work put in by the Student Curriculum Committee. Under the chairmanship of Cindy Brown, the Committee planned and organized the program. Cindy observed and evaluated the program in leiu of participating in it.

Members of the school staff helped to get the program going. Miss DeLaby, besides preparing detailed descriptions, hand-scheduled all students' programs. Teachers worked many hours preparing for their individual classes. They compiled their own knowledge and that gained from researching the subject to create effective courses. Resource people from the area also came in during the three days to help out.

Because the students paid for the extra expenses that certain courses required and brought their own materials for others, the school district acquired no more costs than usual for the three days.

Many good things resulted from the Mini Course Program. Students had new interests aroused and wanted to learn more about different subjects. A nine week evening class on advanced first aid and rescue was taught; a new club, coin collecting was formed; and Mrs. Van Slochteren's German class made plans to view her slides of Germany because of student demand and interest. Some people, after participating in a course, began to review their lives and what they want to do for their life's work.

Student participation and interest greatly increased, leaving everyone refreshed and ready to tackle second semester classes. Many people commented that they liked the longer periods because more could be accomplished with fewer interruptions.

Altogether the Mini Course Program was a tremendous learning experience.

Hobgoblin House is the name of the Junior Class play which was presented in the Grant High School auditorium November 16 and 17. All proceeds went toward the 1974 Junior Class Prom.

The play, written by Jay Tobias, was about a dilapidated old mansion called Hobgoblin House. It is purchased by Priscilla Carter, played by Debbie Bowen, who not knowing that the house is haunted, brings her two nieces to live with her. The nieces, Jill and Marian Carter, are played by Sandy Kahl and Denise Krueger, respectively.

Precious and Few

On April 27, 1974, at 4:30, approximately one hundred couples boarded the busses headed for Brown's Lake Resort in Burlington, Wisconsin.

Upon arrival, the students were settled in their rooms and found their way to the formal dining room for the delicious Prime Rib Dinner. Then the couples were ushered to the ball room for formal dancing to the music of Jack Hansen and his orchestra.

Later pictures of individual couples were taken. Finally about midnight the prom court was lined up ready for the big moment. Diane Kubetz was announced queen of the 1973-1974 Prom.

The next event was a hilarious hypnotist act performed by Irwin Ross. The couples then retrieved to their rooms for a quick change.

A buffet dinner was then served and back to the dance floor they went. This time the music was by a rock band.

At approximately 4:00 Cat Ballou, a western starring Jane Fonda, was shown until 6:00 when breakfast was served. After 30 minutes to say good-bye to the Resort, the couples loaded the busses for home.

PRECIOUS AND FEW

Precious and few are the moment we two can share.

Quiet and blue like the sky, I'm hung over you.

And if I can't find my way back home, it just wouldn't be fair,

Cause precious and few are the moments we two can share.

Baby it's you on my mind, your love is so rare.

Being with you is a feeling I just can't compare.

And if I can't hold you in my arms, it just wouldn't be fair,

Cause precious and few are the moments we two can share.

Graduation 1974

Graduation: there's more to it than a one and a half hour ceremony, for it is not the ceremony or even the diploma that really matters. It is the four long years of work behind the scenes of graduation that make it so important. For graduation 1974, we salute Mark Chaberski, valedictorian, and Cindy Brown, Patti Matthei, and Sandy Rekar, salutatorians, for all their superlative endeavors behind the scenes, and also all the other 1974 graduates for their much appreciated time and effort. Congratulations and good luck.

"The Music Man"

The Grant High School music department presented "The Music Man" in the high school auditorium March 15, 16, 22, and 23, 1974. This comedy in song was the story of a rascally but attractive salesman of musical instruments and band uniforms (played by Ken Dahlman), who shuttled about the Midwest and prevailed upon small-town people to outfit school bands on the promise of teaching its members to play. However he actually couldn't read a note and always left town on a freight after collecting his money and breaking a few local hearts, but in River City he ran into his old sidekick Marcellus Washburn (played by Tim Holm), who had gone straight and taken up residence there. After some persuasion, he agreed to help Harold and together they conspired to swindle the townspeople. Everyone in River City was "agog - simply agog!" about the formation of a boys' band - with the exception of Marion Paroo, the town librarian and piano teacher (played by Cathy Ring and Bette Ekes). She wasn't as easily taken in by Professor Hill as the rest of the town and at first warded off Harold's attempts to "keep the music teacher off-balance."

Grant High School Auditorium
Fox Lake, Illinois

MARCH 15, 16, 22 and 23, 1974

But her mother, Mrs. Paroo (played by Oksana Paly and Julie Salava), kept after her about Harold, saying, "At your age, if you don't mind my askin', what kind o' white knight do you expect to come ridin' along?" Then when her little brother Winthrop (played by Dave Ring), who was a silent child ashamed of his lisp, joined the band, such a change came over him that her disdain turned to admiration and finally to love. And even Harold, who at first had no intention whatsoever of falling in love with Marion, found that for the first time in his life he had his foot caught in the door. Harold was finally exposed and the angry townspeople were ready to tar and feather him until Marion came to his defense and the boys' band entered playing a barely audible "Minuet in G." The people realized that even though they were a bit poorer, they were much happier because of Professor Harold Hill. Thus the curtain fell "happily ever after" on Grant's musical 1974, "The Music Man."

In Memoriam

Her heart was in everybody; a part of her belonged to all. She was dedicated to bringing happiness and joy to everyone who knew her.

The sorrow of her death shall always be remembered by all of us. "My friends," as Linda would say, "are all beautiful." Yes Linda you were right, for everyone who knew her showed expressions of love and sympathy. We haven't the words to convey our deep feelings of appreciation for the kindness and consolation you have given us.

Linda DiDomenico was a bright young girl with many interests in school. Among her various activities, she was a member of A Cappella, Madrigals and the Girls Chorus. She also was an outstanding member of the Grant Pep Club. While returning from a prom picnic on May 1974, Linda was the victim of a fatal car accident. She is missed by both fellow students and teachers alike.

The 1973 Bulldog team produced one of the best results in the last eight years; six wins, three losses. All Conference Champions were Ed Taveirne, Joe Kukla, Kirk Hamsher, and Dan Miller. These and the rest of the Bulldog team deserve a great deal of credit for their outstanding efforts.

The sophomore football team showed Grant followers much promise. Their eight victories were highlighted by a quick dominating defense, who held five of nine opponents to negative offensive yardage and an explosive offense which put most of the games out of reach. Through hard work and determination, future seasons can be as successful as those of the past.

The Freshman 1973-1974 football squad led by coaches Johnson and Thompson, had a terrific season. Out of the nine games played, they lost none, taking first place in the conference. With the drive and hard work shown by the team this year, future seasons should be just as good.

The Frosh-Soph team was 8-1 in conference meets, good for second in the NWSC. The Frosh-Soph team also finished third out of 18 teams in the Lake County meet.

We have a great deal to look forward to next year since eight of our top ten runners on the team were sophomores.

1974

For a team that was more than half sophomores, the varsity squad performed better this year than it had for the last three years. It is encouraging to report such good performances by individuals that still have two remaining years at Grant. Four varsity records were established this year with many others threatened by these individuals in the future. Next year, Coach Jelinek is expecting the best varsity team that Grant has had in a long time.

Assemblies

During 1973-1974, Grant students were fortunate to have many fine assemblies. The first Student Council assembly featured hypnotist Dr. Irwin Ross, who amazed the audience with his powers of suggestion. Those participating found themselves "glued" to their seats, they were unable to take their hands apart, and one young lady was even convinced that she could sing like Barbara Streisand.

The G.C.H.S. cheerleaders interspersed pep assemblies throughout the year, spiced with skits, dances, and spirit-rousing cheers. The Saxon's, a husband-wife team specializing in telepathy, baffled students with an extraordinary display of extra-sensory powers. The faculty narrowly escaped the seniors in the annual Senior-Faculty basketball game. Yet another attraction sponsored by Student Council was Charles King, a pianist, who played and sang his way into the hearts of all those who attended.

Gas dealers plan nationwide freeze protest

Rationing worst solution

Before WWI, vehicles could be seen waiting for hours at a time just for gasoline. Sounds familiar doesn't it? The last few months of 1973 and the beginning months of the new year have been hectic for many car owners. They, too, have been waiting in tremendously long lines.

To prevent gas rationing from becoming mandatory, gas stations have closed on Sundays and evenings. Some customers had to wake up as early as five and six o'clock to go buy gas, at enormously high costs.

Another proposition for saving energy, was daylight savings time. Children were going to the bus stops in pitch black streets. Many parents protested against that proposition. Many didn't even like the idea of turning all thermostats down to 68 degrees.

As the warmer weather drew nearer, the protests faded out; except for the gas prices which continue to raise.

New stock skid; DJ falls 17.76

Tuesday, November 21, 1974, the stock market skidded its lowest level in two years. The Dow Jones fell 17.76 points after Monday's drop of 28.67. There after, many more ups and downs were recorded. Fortunately, however, on December 27, 1973, the stocks rose 22.75 points, letting the people gain some confidence once again.

Nixon fires Cox Richardson quits post Ruckelshaus axed

President Richard M. Nixon fired Special Watergate Prosecutor Archibald Cox on October 20, 1973. In protest, Attorney General Elliot Richardson resigned. Since Deputy General William Ruckleshaus refused to dismiss Cox, he, too, was fired.

Nixon wanted Cox to discontinue his seeking the disputed White House tape recordings of Watergate principals. Cox refused. And so said Cox, "whether ours shall continue to be a government of laws and not of men is now for Congress and ultimately the American people."

Because of these firings and several other reasons, many political leaders have started impeachment processes.

Israeli war

Egypt and Syria battled with Israel across cease-fire lines on Saturday, October 6, in the worst fighting since the 1967 six-day Mideast War. Israel said its gunboat missiles sank five Syrian warships, and Egypt claimed it captured almost the entire eastern bank of the Suez Canal. Each side blamed the other for starting the fighting.

A NEW VILLAGE HALL

Fox Lake has built a new village hall on Route 59, across from Grant Community High School. The old hall has been torn down. The new building is a proud symbol of Fox Lake. Many students have slowed down to catch a glimpse of the beautifully constructed building whose parking lot is filled with squad cars.

THE EXORCIST

The controversial film, the Exorcist, was first shown the day after Christmas in Chicago and other major cities. The story was originally about a small boy who is possessed by the devil. The film, however, has changed the boy's role to be a girl's. After many gruesome scenes, the girl takes on the devil's personality. Remarkable results on the viewers occurred. Many became hysterical. Some became sick and even fainted in the lobby of the theatre. Some had to see priests after the frightful experience of simply watching the film.

Even though the film was plain gory, it made millions of dollars in the first week alone. After three months, lines of people still crowded the theatre.

Gigantic Gas Line-Ups

FLOODS AGAIN!!

Yes, Fox Lake, Illinois, and surrounding communities have been on television and appeared in newspapers! The news, however, was not good. The lakes and channels have again overflowed from both the melting of the snow and the tremendous amount of rainfall.

Grant High students have again voluntarily helped out with the sand-bagging.

R.T.A.!?!

On Tuesday, March 19, 1974, the polls were open from 6 a.m. to 6 p.m., with 6,040,627 elegible voters.

The legislation stated that a regional transportation authority shall be created for Cook, DuPage, Kane, Lake, McHenry, and Will counties, Illinois. The bill had passed.

Some opinions thought that a strong, healthy mass transportation system for Chicago and the surrounding areas is essential to prevent the deterioration of our environment. They figured that the alternative would be a mass of gas-eating automobiles which would fill the air with pollution. It seems that many more people started to amend the new bill.

On separate ballots, on the same day, was nominated statewide: Candidates for U.S. Senate and House, state treasurer, state senators, state representatives, state central committeemen and circuit and appellate court vacancies.

ABORTION NOW LEGALIZED

The State Congress of Illinois has proposed and passed legislature for abortions to be legalized in the state of Illinois. Now safer equipment will be used in sterile hopsitals instead of dirty tools in filthy apartments by back-alley "doctors."

RIGHT TURNS ON RED LIGHTS ARE NOW PERMITTED IN ILLINOIS

BEER AND WINE OK FOR 19-YEAR-OLDS

A new state law lowering the drinking age to 19 went into effect. Hard liquor remains forbidden to minors under the new law. This rule is hard for the bartenders to follow through. They have to keep track of the drinker's age and what he drinks all through out the night. Many bartenders hope that the law will soon be that 19 year olds can drink hard liquor or no liquor at all.

Many protests were heard from the people, however, the answer was that they will drink anyway. It is better to drink in a bar than to sneak on a deserted road and possibly get hurt.

Streakmanship has captured the minds of many people. The streaker usually wears a bit of decoration about his neck. If the streak is to be a formal one, the male wears a black necktie while the female wears a pearl necklace. Male streakers are very polite. When they are accompanied by females, they run on the curb side of the sidewalk; and when arriving at the escape car, he opens the door for her. Other rules are:

1. No loitering
2. Streak speed at all times
3. All ages permitted
   a. Under 18 - parental consent required
   b. Under 16 - accompanied by parent
4. Warning signal must be used.

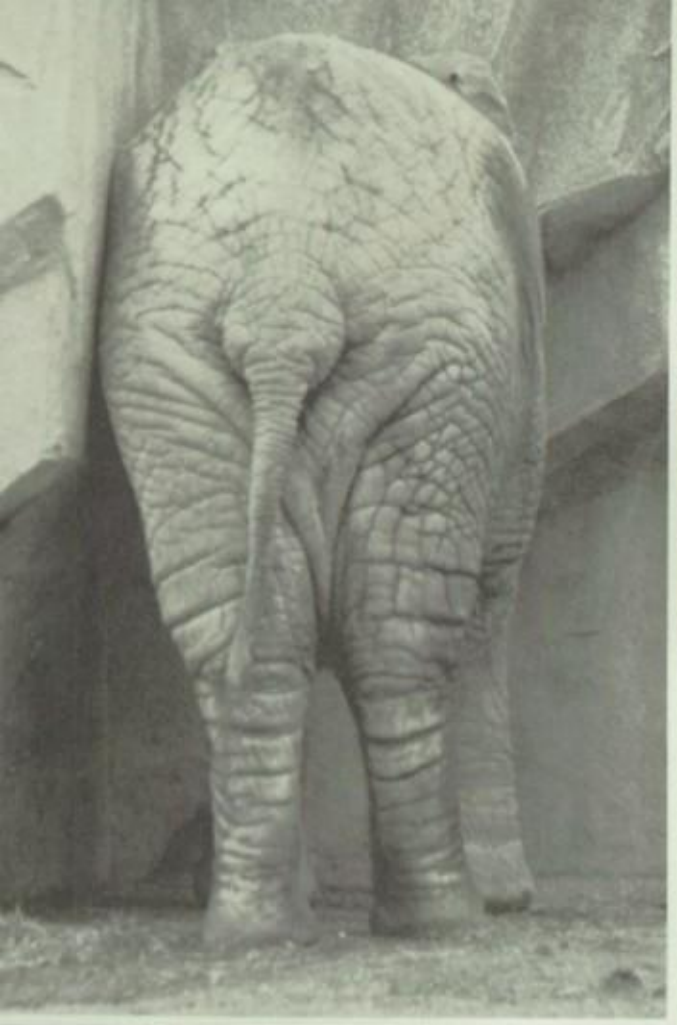
ZAYRE
The Discount
Department Store



The school year is now ended. Once again the pile of quad-packs awaits shipment to the publisher. The stack represents hours of work by the yearbook staff. But now a deeper meaning comes to my mind. The photos and copy enclosed represent a portion of the lives of those pictured. Not only are the happy activities of the school year and the awards shown but, since a "Behind the Scenes" theme was chosen, perhaps some of the hours of effort and hidden frustrations are also represented.

As you find your pictures, remember you have been a living part of the school the past year. In ways you and others may fail to fully realize,you, through classes, friends and teachers, have influenced the organization we call Grant Community High School. And in return you may discover how to apply what you have learned from those with whom you have lived.

May this educational maturation process be rewarding for you. Go in peace. Vaya Con Dios.
